

ZOLOTOI PLYVOS

Золотой
Плѣс

FREE ADMISSION FOR MSU STUDENTS!

Zolotoi Plyos is a Russian folk band from the Saratov Conservatory in southern Russia. The three members (Aleksandr, Yelena, and Sergei) play over 20 authentic folk instruments (dudki, lozhki, balalaiki, and garmoshki to name a few), and perform in native dress. When not performing, they teach at the Middlebury Russian School in Vermont and the Royal Carillon Academy in Mechelen, Belgium.

Sponsored by:

O.I.S.S.

R.CAH.

James Madison College

Department of Theater

Department of Linguistics, Germanic,

Slavic, Asian and African languages

Center for European, Russian and Eurasian Studies

6 p.m.

Sunday, April 18th

Snyder-Phillips Hall,

RCAH Theater

This performance is hosted by the MSU RUSSIAN CLUB.

For more information, go to MSURUSSIANCLUB.WEEBLY.COM

